OHLOCK SOLUTION

Ohclock operates the entire complex manufacturer to consumer selling process; we handle product creation, translation, advertisement, global logistics, multi-language customer support and customer returns.

Thus allowing you to focus on your business

06

HOW TO START

---

After many years of experience, we've formed a quick and simple set-up process that is flexible enough to cater to your unique requirements.

All we require is ongoing stock updates, price list and pricing strategy per country, selling restrictions and product information.

From here we will take over the reins.

07

DAY TO DAY

Ohclock process all orders received and submit a daily consolidated order from the manufacturer warehouse.

Once the order is ready for collection we ship it to our nearest warehouse and from there distribute to the end consumers.

Ohclock will manage all customer communication and service requests to ensure customer satisfaction and a positive shopping experience.

OHLOCK CONCLUSIONS

---

Online and mobile customers are increasingly using technology to search, learn about, and shop for new and unique time pieces which are not always found in brick and mortar stores that carry narrow collections.

They expect accessibility, large assortments, customizations, safe purchases and professional service.

Ohclock platform allows you to grant their wishes while controlling the market.
